RED SOX PUT TIGERS OUT OF RACE FOR FLAG

Detroit, Sept. 22.—The world's champion Red Sox practically eliminated the Tigers from the race for the American League flag here yesterday afternoon by taking the third consecutive game from Jennings' tribe by 10 to 3. The Tigers are now three games behind Carigan's men, and only seven more games left for them to play.

Even the loyal followers of the home team are now ready to concede the championship in Han Johnson's circuit to the Boston team.

Four pitchers failed to stop the Red Sox. Harry Coveleskie, the noted southpaw, was nominated by Jennings at the beginning of the proceedings, but his stay in the mound was not long. Coveleskie is naturally effective against the Red Sox, but he had nothing but his glove and was knocked out of the box early in the fray.

On the other hand Babe Ruth, Carigan's youthful left-hander, had the Tigers at his mercy in nearly every inning. In the fourth, singles by Crawford, Holman, Stange, and Burns, hitting for Boland, enabled the Tigers to tally two runs.

The Red Sox began their scoring early, getting two runs in the first inning, one in the second and one in the third, before Boland replaced Coveleskie. Boland proved just as easy for the Red Sox, for in the next inning Carigan's men turned the game into a massacre by scoring three more runs.

YANKEES RALLY IN NINTH AND DEFEAT ST. LOUIS BROWNS

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—New York has won two games from the St. Louis Browns at Sportsman's Park this season. The Yankees' first victory Tuesday sent the Browns tumbling out of the first division, and their second success yesterday shot Jones' men into sixth place. Cleveland won, thereby moving into fifth place.

New York spanked Carl Weiland for three markers in the second and fourth innings. The Browns got to Shocker for two in the fourth and elected to bat. The Yankees' men at bat, when, with Austin on third, Lavan on second, and two down, Shocker passed Dave Davenport, filling the bases and making a full house for Albert Shotton. Bert's hit brought two men home.

This rally would have won for the Browns had not Davenport weakened in the ninth. Lefty High batted for Shocker in the final round, and was cleverly thrown out by Austin. Lee Magee singled to center, his third consecutive hit. Hendrix, a recent recruit, tripled to right. The ball hit the foul line, and Ward Miller stumbled in fielding it. Magee scored and Hendrix reached third. Roger Peckinpaugh squeezed Hendrix home, tapping to Davenport, who didn't know what to do with the ball when he picked it up. Hendrix had to run out and take the ball away from him to prevent Peckinpaugh from getting an extra base.

Borton, batting for Ward Miller, separated Shawkey from a pass. To bin ran for Borton and took third on Miller's fourth blow. This was four out of five for Michigan George, who had a profitable afternoon. To bin was doubled up at the plate trying to score on Pratt's fly to left field. Miller cut off John by a yard at least.

CARL MORRIS IS DEMANDING $5,000 TO MEET COFFEY

New York, Sept. 22.—Carl Morris, the lumbering big bulk from Oklahoma, is hesitating about accepting an offer of $3,500 to come here to meet Frank Moran. Morris wants $5,000 and a liberal percentage in case the bout draws extra well.

In Morris' last appearance in New York he was slaughtered by Jim Coffey, who wore out a brand new pair of gloves hitting him on the chin. The big fellow was outclassed as badly as when he met Jim Flynn, and he looked almost as bad after Coffey got through with him. Ringsiders marvelled that Morris was able to stand up under the Irishman's wallop. After one rally by Coffey, during which he nailed Morris with everything he had in stock, the latter reeled into the corner and collapsed into the chair.

"Are you hurt much? Do you want to stop?" inquired his anxious seconds, who were afraid he would be killed and were not willing to be implicated in a charge of manslaughter. "Well, he shook me up a little that time," Morris admitted grudgingly.

TEN CLUBS TO ENTER NEW BOWLING LEAGUE

The Amateur Bowling league promises to be a big success. Ten teams have enrolled and the roster is now filled. The first meeting will be held next Friday evening at Connie Lewis' Fairfield avenue alleys. Each club should send a representative to this meeting for officers will be elected and other important business transacted. The clubs who have entered are: Brooklides, Ozanams, Rosebuds, Athletics, Brooklawn, Columbus Boys, Savoy, White Sox, Longfellow and White Eagles.

P. A. Ball, cashier and A. S. Wood, assistant cashier, of the broken American National Bank of Fort Smith, Ark., pleaded guilty in the Federal court to falsification of reports of the bank's condition.

BROOKLYN FANS SORE AT HIGH WORLD'S SERIES PRICES

Ebbets Plans to Charge $5 and $3 For All Reserved Seats.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Brooklyn fans are boiling with rage at what they consider the highway robber tactics of Owner Ebbets, the Brooklyn magnate. In the event that his club gets into the world's series he intends to boost the prices so that the only reserved seats sold will be $5 and $3 and bleacher seats will be $2. Ebbets is not very popular in Brooklyn now and it looks as if this latest move will make him as well liked as the rent collector.

Here is the Brooklyn price list: All box seats, $5 per game. First nine rows, downstairs, back of the boxes, and first seven rows upstairs, back of the boxes, $5 per game. Rows 10 to 23 downstairs, $3 per game. Rows 24 to 35 upstairs, $3 per game. Pavilion seats (present 50 cent bleacher seats), $2 per game. Right field temporary bleacher seats, $2 per game. Left field temporary bleacher seats, $1 per game.

Note, we say one game after each amount so no one will get confused and think this amount is for the series. Only the $5 and $3 seats will be reserved.

What makes it still worse from a Brooklyn standpoint is that President Lannan of the Boston Red Sox has announced that there will be no increase in former prices if the Red Sox get in the series. In answer to a question sent him President Baker of the Phillies wired back: "If Philadelphia should win there will be no increase over last year's prices despite the limited capacity of our park."

The price list of the Brooklyn club is far in excess to anything ever asked for world's series tickets. When the series was played on the Polo grounds boxes sold for $5, the upper grand stand for $3, the lower for $2, and bleachers $1. This has been the general run of prices everywhere, though the Red Sox had 3,000 50 cent seats last season, and Mack formerly charged 50 cents to stand in the outfield at Shibe Park.

Short Sections of Fan Fodder

EBBETS TOO GRASPING

In spite of Brooklyn's winning dash the fans in that city have been turning out in small numbers for weekday games.

Many reasons have been advanced for this but the truth is probably found in the fact that Owner Ebbets is not popular with the folks who support the game. He has always been accustomed to put the financial side of baseball ahead of everything else. He has the seating of his park so arranged that he gets a higher average rate of admission than any other club in either big league.

His latest action in increasing the rates of world's series tickets so that most of the choice reserved seats will be $5 and the rest $3 has aroused howls of indignation. The only seats to be obtained for $2 are in the bleachers. In direct contrast to this Owner Lannan of the Red Sox has announced that there will be no increase in prices over last year for Boston seats.

RACES PRACTICALLY OVER

It has been practically assured by yesterday's results that the Red Sox and Brooklyn will capture leading honors in the American and National leagues. The game Red Sox gave the Tigers a terrible lacing yesterday, thereby giving Carigan's men a two and a half game lead over the White Sox. The Phillies lost while Brooklyn won. This gives the Dodgers a two and a half game advantage over Moran's warriors.

Benny Kauff goes right along hanging up his daily hit. Benny is making a desperate effort to get within the magic .300 mark before the season ends and he may do it.

The Washington Glee club football players of New Haven will meet tomorrow night to discuss plans for the season. They are worried in New Haven over the report that Moose Miller has decided to play with the Chain Co. eleven of this city. Miller had been elected captain of the Glee club team.

BENEFIT CONTEST TOMORROW OUGHT TO DRAW CROWD

The big baseball game between the Singers and Locomobile clubs starts at 3:30 at Newfield park tomorrow afternoon. These clubs are two of the best in the industrial league and a lively battle is sure to result. The contest will be a benefit for the Employees' Relief branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis association. The players will donate their services and use of Newfield park will be given free by Manager Healy of the Bridgeport club.

Earl Champion, the crack Industrial league southpaw, will be on the mound for the Singers. He had a fine season and wants to top it off by downing the Loco boys. Opposed to Champion will be Broad, who is one of the best youngsters of the year. Every factory in the city has been visited by the committee and the sale of seats for the game has been large. Every cent of the receipts will go to this worthy charity.

CIGARS GOING UP

New York, Sept. 22.—An increase in the price of cigars was announced here today by several manufacturers and members of the tobacco trade said that advances would soon be general. Higher cost of raw material and better wages for cigarmakers must be shared by the consumers, jobbers and retailers.

GIANTS MAKE SIXTEEN WINS IN SUCCESSION

New York, Sept. 22.—By way of diversion, whom do you suppose the Giants beat yesterday at the Polo Grounds? The Chicago Cubs of Joe Tinker is the answer. As they say in the arithmetic class, the sum was 4 to 0; higher mathematics, incidentally, makes it the sixteenth straight victory. The game was embellished by fifty plays on the part of the Giants behind Pol Perritt. You remember Pol, the lad who beat the Phillies twice in one afternoon.

For three innings the Cubs were quite gay with Pol, but then he shut down on the opposition, and after the third he did not give the Bruins a bit. Mr. Tinker, who chaperons the Cubs, was very much perturbed. He could not understand it, because every time any one of his batsmen fanned he was told that Pol had nothing but a glove and good wish.

As a matter of fact, Pol Perritt had more than that. He had a curve which raised havoc with the backs of the Chicago batsmen. He also had a slow ball which put tears in their eyes. In other words he was there, but the Cubs couldn't find him.

It is no easy task for any team to win 16 games in 16 days. In fact, any major league club which resorts to this sort of thing is usually considered as more or less a great aggregation. So it is with the Giants. They are going along to beat the band, and yet there is no goal which they can hope to reach. All that they are doing is winning ball games, and their spirit is much to their credit.

Perhaps, if you will let your fancy drift back, you will remember this Claude Hendrix. At one time he was the trump card in the Pirates' pitching staff. Although it is a sad thing to chronicle, there is no getting away from the fact that Claude is getting old. In fact, everybody gets old as the years drift along.

As a man up a tree looks at the situation, Mr. Hendrix did not have a Chinaman's chance against Pol Perritt. In fact, Pol did a very finished job at twirling. He put the ball everywhere over the platter except where the enemy could hit it. The audience will now arise while the band plays and will applaud Mr. Perritt.

REAL NAMES OF BOB MOHA AND CHARLEY WEINERT ARE EXPOSED

New York, Sept. 22.—If you were a hard working announcer at a boxing club and got a slip with Weinachyowski, what would you do? One announcer gurgled a couple of times, tugged at his collar band, mopped his brow and said:

"Introducing, in this corner Charlie Weinert." And Charlie Weinert he has been ever since.

Next Monday night this young Hungarian heavyweight, who has spent most of his life in New Jersey, will box Robert Mucha ten rounds in Madison Square Garden.

Mucha? Sure! That's the name they wished on the young Bohemian-American middleweight from Milwaukee, when he first saw the light of day. "Mucha! Mucha! More! More!" yelled the fans delightedly when they saw the human battering ram wade into action. By the phonic method of spelling More became Moha to Robert and Bob Moha he has been ever since.

There is no intent to deceive in these changes of names. You cannot blame the announcer in Weinert's case and Moha only wished to please.

LEGORE STARS IN YALE PRACTICE BY KICKING FIELD GOAL

New Haven, Sept. 22.—Yale's football squad received a boost yesterday when the disbanded of the Yale artillery battalion swelled its total by 20 players, about half of whom reported for gridiron practice, including "Chub" Sheldon, tackle last season. Yesterday's practice included 30 minutes scrimmaging in which the scrubs were unable to gain, the regulars scoring a field goal by Harry Legore and touchdowns by Legore, Bingham and Jacques.

Legore's drop-kick goal was his first of the season and was made from the 40 yard line. The coaches insisted last night that the frequent scoring of the "variety" was largely due to ragged rushline work by the scrubs. The return of the soldiers to the football squad is expected to strengthen the scant substitute rushline material.

HARVARD ELEVEN IMPROVES AFTER VISIT OF COACHES

Cambridge, Sept. 22.—The Harvard "varsity" football players improved with a rush yesterday afternoon in their third scrimmage of the week against the scrubs. Driven hard by the coaches, after their uncertain work of the day before, the first string men worked hard and fast, scoring four touchdowns and a field goal against the second team.

Flower and Minot scored on end runs of more than 25 yards, and Casey counted with a 15-yard romp. The other score was made by Burnham after a series of line plunges. The field goal was kicked by Bond from the 25-yard line. Captain Darnum was shifted back to his old place at guard, while Taylor was in the line-up for the first time at tackle and did the goal kicking after touchdowns.

Zack has played so well at tackle on the left wing that he probably will be there Saturday. The "varsity" line's charging was better than it has been, and there was some fine interference for the backs. The return of Murray Taylor from Texas helps the quarterback situation tremendously, as he is the best driver Harvard has this fall. He will not get into a game until next week, however.

Harvard's ends have been causing Coach Leary considerable worry, but both Phinney, from the freshmen, and the veteran, Harle, played well. Horween, the heaviest of the regular backs, has a bad leg and did not play.

Feature Event of Grand Circuit Races Is 2:06 Pace Today

Columbus, O., Sept. 22.—The 2:06 pace is the feature event of today's program of the fall meeting of the Grand Circuit races on the local turf. Judge Ormonde, of the Valentin stable, is regarded by the horsemen as a good bet in a field. The race is the best three heats in five, with a purse of $1,200. Three Columbus-owned horses figure prominently in all of the events today. Tommy Todd Temple, the Toddler and Donna Lom, all from the capital city stables, are entered in the 2:06 trot, the second number of the afternoon program. The third class race, 2:15 pace, has ten starters, including Miss Jean, Squaw Man and Robert Frisco.

SPEAKER GETS HIS 200TH HIT OF CAMPAIGN

New York, Sept. 22.—Hal Chase made further gain on his rival for the National league batting championship yesterday. In four times up he made two hits, and boosted his average two points. Zach Wheat, the Brooklyn Bombardier, held his ground by making one hit in three times up, while Roker Hornsby, with two hits in four times at bat, gained two points. Mike Daubert made an almost imperceptible gain by getting one hit in three times up. The relative standing of the players remains unchanged, and is as follows:

	At Bat.	Hits.	Ave.
Chase,	509	169	.332
Wheat,	538	173	.321
Hornsby,	465	147	.316
Daubert,	457	147	.312

In the American league the remarkable stickwork of Tris Speaker featured the day. The Indian star assaulted the well-known delivery of Walter Johnson and made four hits in six times at bat. The fourth of these hits was his 200th of the season. Ty Cobb, for a change, went hitless in four times up. Here is how they stand to date:

	At Bat.	Hits.	Ave.
Speaker,	518	200	.386
Cobb,	512	193	.375

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

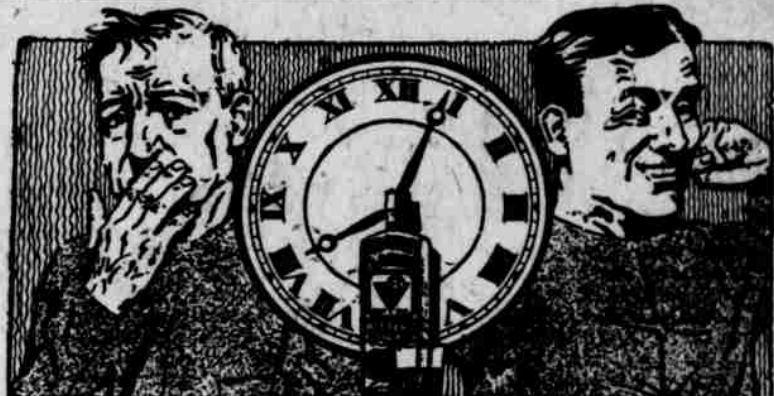

At Mayor Mitchell's suggestion the question of reduction of fares over the Fort Lee ferry was put over for two weeks when it came before the commissioners of the sinking fund.

Sir Richard Crawford, commercial attache of the British Embassy, held a conference with Secretary Lansing in relation to the present trade dispute between the United States and Great Britain.

AKORN A. C. TO HOLD 21ST ANNUAL OUTING

The Akorn A. C. will hold its 21st annual outing and sheep roast tomorrow at Forest Grove. The committee in charge is composed of Archibald Cameron, chairman; Thomas Connery, James Hart, John Mansfield, Hugo Alberts, James Glennon, Chauncey Taylor and others. The fun will commence about 10 o'clock at which time John "Dick" Mansfield will supply the guests with his famous roasted sirloin steaks. Refreshments will be served. In the afternoon a baseball game will be played between the teams representing the Akorn and Jonathan clubs.

Boxing exhibitions, quoit throwing, foot races and dancing will also be on the program. One of the features of the musical program will be solos by prominent guests from out of town. About 8 o'clock the big feed will be served. It will consist of roast spring lamb, chicken, lobsters, white and sweet potatoes and numerous other appetizing viands. Upwards of 400 guests will be furnished with food on this occasion. At the annual outing of this association held at the same place one year ago 180 persons were in attendance and it is expected that the number will be greatly augmented this year. The Akorn club was formerly the Akorn A. C., organized 21 years ago last April. At the time of its organization it was composed of 12 members. Today the directors boast of a membership of 400. Some of the most prominent men in this city were active members of this club in its heyday and although a few of them do not take active part in the affairs of club nowadays they are yet members and have the interest of the association at heart. It is expected that there will be a great outpouring of "old timers" on this occasion and Forest Grove is expected to be the scene of a reunion of "Tigers" from the old Strick ward tomorrow. The green trotter cars running to Long Hill will transport guests to the grove.
